

Our aim is to provide holiday information and details of accommodation providers and services in this "Forgotten Corner" of South East Cornwall, England.

Whether it is a romantic self catering cottage or Lodge, Pub, Hotel, B&B, Camping or even a wedding venue you are looking for, you will find them listed here.

The Rame Peninsula or "The Forgotten Corner" as it is known locally is just across the border with Devon. Bordered on three sides by water, the Rivers Lynher, Tamar and Plymouth Sound. It encompasses the villages of Antony, Cremyll, Kingsand, Cawsand, Millbrook, St.John, Sheviock, Antony, Wilcove, Crafhole, Downderry, Portwinkle, Seaton, Freathy & Whitsand Bay with Torpoint as the postal Town. Designated as an Area of outstanding natural beauty (AONB) Here you will find a haven of peace and tranquility.

Visitors travelling by car approach the Peninsula by crossing the Tamar Bridge on the A38 or by going through the thriving city of Plymouth with its deep naval traditions and excellent shopping facilities and boarding the chain ferry to Torpoint. Visitors on foot take the passenger ferry from Stonehouse in Plymouth to Cremyll or, in the summer, the "Weston Maid", a delightful boat trip from the Barbican at Plymouth across the Sound landing on Cawsand Beach.

We hope this site whets your appetite to visit, and we look forward to seeing you soon!
